DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 7-12 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention II, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 3/24/06.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-6 and 13-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pichler (US D282,387 A).

Pichler discloses a ski comprising bosses or indentations for decorative purposes on the outer face, as shown in figures 1-12. Pichler does not disclose a varnish film on the top surface. The use of a transparent layer of film for protecting and reinforcing is well known in the art at the time of the invention and it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have provided the ski of Pichler with a transparent layer of film (or reinforcing means) in order to protect the ski from damage, as is conventional in the art.

With respect to claims 4, 5, and 13-16, the height and/or dimensions of the bosses are not patentable unless they produce an unexpected result.

Examiner Note: Since the bosses are only used for decorative purposes, they are not patentable. A design patent or the method of manufacturing the ski would be favorable for obtaining a patent for this invention.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 9/13/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. With respect to the applicant's arguments, the examiner believes enough art was cited to establish varnish film as well known as a protectant for skis. The spec does not appear to recite other uses or functions for the bosses other than decorative, the film and its thickness however do have the protective and reinforcing purpose, which is already well known.
